ORGANIZED & INVOLVED MEMBERSHIP

Worksite/Department Leadership Structure A member-to-member structure is in place at every site/department with 1 respected, trained, and active worksite leader for every 10-15 bargaining unit members. Training is regularly held to strengthen the knowledge and organizing skills among all union leaders.

Member Participation A majority of bargaining unit members are active in the union as demonstrated by attending union meetings, completing union surveys, participating in union actions, and volunteering for union responsibilities.

Membership Meetings Regular membership meetings and steward/site rep meetings are held with good attendance and participation. Meetings are engaging, inspiring, and move campaigns and goals forward.

Member Database & Charts An accurate and complete list is maintained of all bargaining unit members by site/department with membership and COPE status, non-work contact information, union participation info and other information to help organize a stronger union. Each campus, worksite, and department is charted.

Member Communications Face-to-face conversations are regularly conducted throughout the union. A member-to-member worksite communications network is established with a 1:5 ratio. New employees are personally contacted as soon as they start. Union news and leaflets are regularly distributed to every bargaining unit member in person, in print, and electronically.

Contract Campaigns The union uses collective bargaining as an opportunity to strengthen the union by soliciting member input, keeping members well-informed with frequent bargaining updates, and activating significant numbers of members to win a great contract. The union uses collective bargaining as an opportunity to improve public education and to build partnerships with parents, students, community groups, and elected officials in this effort.

Worksite Issues & Contract Enforcement Worksite leaders involve and organize members to take collective action to address issues at the worksite that are important to people. A quality contract enforcement program that involves members is in place. Issues are resolved.

Focused Resources The local union's focus and financial resources are aligned to build an organized and involved membership.
