

Montana Nurses Association Labor Representative Position Description

Title: Labor Representative

Position Description: Montana Nurses Association (MNA) is accepting resume's for the position of Labor Representative. This position will work closely under the direction of the Labor Program Director to contribute to a growing and successful labor program within the Montana Nurses Association. MNA is a member driven organization ensuring competent professional staff to improve nurse members work environment, advocate for their profession and healthcare, and advance their abilities as professional nurses going into the future.

Responsibilities:

- The individual who assumes this position must demonstrate leadership skills, professional communication skills, and a devoted commitment to a healthy and strong professional nurse association. The position commands a team oriented individual eager to collaborate with all MNA staff, to adapt to multiple tasks, and an ability to prioritize workload appropriately.
- Autonomy, organizational, and communication skills are critical.
- This position requires in- state travel and occasional national travel, Due to the member schedules of those we represent, non-standard hours can be expected. The position located in Helena, Montana.

Individuals interested in exploring this position or for additional information are encouraged to submit a resume or CV with a cover letter to vicky@mtnurses.org and robin@mtnurses.org.

Position will remain open until filled. Competitive salary and excellent benefits.

The Montana Nurses Association is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to age, gender, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, disability, national origin, political affiliation or religious belief.