DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Design and implement campaigns and political strategies to promote pro-public education and related legislation and local school board policies, and to elect UTLA-endorsed candidates.
- Support PACE Committee efforts related to candidate endorsement, including candidate interviews and related materials, interfacing with Los Angeles County Federation of Labor’s C.O.P.E. endorsement process, and general tracking of candidate endorsement process.
- Support PACE Committee efforts related to increasing PACE membership and contribution levels by developing and implementing an outreach plan that includes union leadership, professional staff, organizing coordinator and member volunteer participation.
- Coordinate overall involvement in political program across union leadership, professional and other UTLA staff, campaign organizing coordinators, member volunteers and community service volunteers.
- Play a role in polling, voter targeting and effective campaign message development.
- Develop and expand a Los Angeles-based rank-and-file-led delegation/lobbying effort with School Board members and local legislators, and carry out an educational program with elected officials in Los Angeles, Sacramento, and Washington D.C. as needed working with State and National affiliate staff around larger political advocacy efforts.
- Create and implement skills training programs for UTLA staff, members, and supporters around leadership development, political advocacy, field campaign implementation, and direct action organizing.
- Supervise and manage department field staff involved in UTLA’s political and legislative field programs at the national, state and local levels.

- Manage the day-to-day implementation of approved political programs, including the development of campaign plans, voter contact programs, accountability systems and campaign materials.
- Coordinate UTLA’s use of vendors in support of the approved political programs.
- Develop and maintain collaborative relationships with allied groups on political/legislative campaigns at the national, state and local level.
- Collaborate with UTLA departments and programs to improve mobilization capacity with state and local affiliates.
- Work on other initiatives or tasks supported by UTLA.
- Identify and develop potential school board candidates.
- Instrumental in creating and supporting education, labor, community and political meetings, rallies, conferences, and events.
- Maintain UTLA presence at key education, labor, community and political meetings, rallies, conferences, and events.
- Perform additional duties and responsibilities related to UTLA political capacity as assigned
